Note:

1. The B.Com curriculum is divided into four parts and contains different courses, The courses have been named after AECC: Ability Enhancement Compulsory Course; DSC: Discipline Specific Course; SEC: Skill Enhancement Course; and CC/EA: Co-curricular and Extra Co-curricular Activities
2. A practicals on skill development subject is a 'hand-on class' which allows students to apply the theories learnt in the class room. One hour practical class is equal to one hour theory class and the class is managed by a single teacher. Practical classes may be conducted in the Business Lab or in Computer Lab or in the class room depending on the requirement. Senior/Experienced/Concerned subject teachers may be allotted the practical workload.
3. IA marks for practical on skill development subject shall be awarded on the basis of practical records submitted by the student and on the basis of internal assessment tests.
4. Co-curricular and Extension Activities: A student shall opt for one of the following activities offered in the college, in all the four semesters of the undergraduate programme. The activity carries a credit each and will be internally assessed for 50 marks. The activities may include a) N.S.S. / N.C.C b) Sports and Games c) Physical Education or Activities related to Yoga d) Field studies / Industry Inplant Training. e) Community work such as promotion of values of National Integration, Environment, Human rights and duties, Peace, Civic sense etc. f) A Small project work concerning the achievements of India in different fields g) Evolution of study groups/seminar circles on Indian thoughts and ideas. h) Computer assisted/web-based learning and e-library skills Evaluation of Co-curricular and Extension Activities shall be as per the procedure evolved by the university from time to time.
5. MIL, English, Indian constitution and Environmental science subjects are studied as per the circulations made by university from time to time. The contents of the syllabus and question papers pattern are also circulated from the university.
