7.1.1 Annual gender sensitization action plan 2022-23:

Through Democratic Administration, our Institute is essential to maintaining justice and equity among the stakeholders. We committed to acting as an example and addressing any disparities with the help of the administration, instructors, students, and other relevant parties.

Plans:

- ❖ To take care Health and Hygiene of female students and staff.
- ❖ To honor and symbolize the diverse abilities of women.
- ❖ To organize regular awareness-raising activities among students and staff.
- ❖ To educate women on a variety of cultural issues that affects them as individuals.
- ❖ To organize Women Rights and Gender equality.
- ❖ Faculty members encourage collaboration, reciprocity in leadership roles, and impartial engagement in the classroom.
- ❖ Care-share forums, mentor-mentee systems, and class committee meetings were held.
- ❖ The College invites specialists in several sectors to deliver gender sensitization programmes on topics such as sexual harassment, ragging, women's rights, and gender discrimination. To address gender-related concerns, colleges have grievance redressal, anti-sexual harassment, and women empowerment cells.
